Focus Areas

- Budget—It is essential for financial stability to contain costs for Jordan District and budget for reduced revenues. I will continue to streamline the District Administration and district programs to match current revenue.
- Class Size—Class size is the number one concern of patrons in Jordan District. I will continue to advocate for decreasing class size.
- Community Involvement—Community involvement is vital to the success of Jordan District. I will advocate for patron input meetings and continue to work with city leaders and state legislators.

Personal

- 33 year resident of West Jordan
- Proud parent of 5 children who all attended Jordan District schools
- Married for 37 years
- BS in Sociology from BYU

I would be honored to continue to represent you on the Jordan School Board.
